

Care Ministries

Saturday, May 7, 2011

Instructor: William T. Luffman THD

COURSE SYLLABUS

I. COURSE DESCRIPTION:

This is a Masters Course class that is a study of Care ministries from all aspects as is relevant to church life today. The various aspects studied will include: Effective Care Ministry Today, The Need For Care and Outreach Programs in the Local Church. Creative Care Programs. Developing Care and Outreach Teams. The Search for Leaders. Insights and Ideas That Work. The Ministry of Jesus in the 21st Century.

II. COURSE OBJECTIVES:

1. To understand the principles of Care Ministries and its relevance for today.
2. To be able to discuss all the topics with a clear understanding.
3. To have a clear understanding of all terminology which will be discussed?
4. To be inspired to apply the principles discussed in any given environment.

III. TEXTBOOK:

Nelson's Church Leaders Manual for Congregational care, Thomas Nelson 2010

IV. COURSE REQUIREMENTS:

1. Read the textbooks
2. A 10-minute theological discussion on one of the subjects.

V. GRADING:

- | | |
|---|-----|
| 1. Critical Report of textbook 850 words | 30% |
| 2. Notes from class and class interaction | 10% |
| 3. Personal Experience from participation in a Care Ministry Report (2 Pages) | 30% |
| 4. Final Test | 30% |