

COVENANT BIBLE COLLEGE

The Gospel of John

May 8, 2010 & May 15, 2010

Instructor: Dr. Jason B. Brittain

Early Registration Deadline:

Course Syllabus

I. Class Description:

A study of the Gospel of John to with an eye to see what God has revealed to us through it. God has given us four Gospels but in many ways John is unique and we will learn about its uniqueness and see how God can and does speak to us through it.

II. Objectives

At the successful completion of the course, the student will be able to:

A. Knowledge

1. Understand the revelation of God's Word more fully.
2. Grasp that God uses us all in unique ways.
3. Know the difference between John and the other Gospels.
4. Be able to understand why each Gospel writer wrote his account with an emphasis on John.

B. Skills

1. Demonstrate a working knowledge of what John wrote and why.
2. Detect why God led John to write the things He did and understand why and how they fit into God's total revelation in the Word.

C. Attitudes

1. Gain an increased appreciation of the Bible as a true guide for what God is saying to His people and how they should live.
2. Gain an increased understanding of how John is different and yet a vital part of the Word.

III. Textbook: John – The Gospel of Belief – An Analytic Study of the Text
by Merrill C. Tenney

IV. Requirements

1. Book must be read completely
2. Term paper must be completed by: July 12, 2010

V. Grading

1. Test on Book 25 %
2. Mid Term 25%
3. Final Test 25%
4. Term Paper 25%